

TYLER LADUCER

LICENSED MASSAGE THERAPIST

BACKGROUND

Tyler is a Denver native and loves to spend his time with his dog Darius. He's lived in Denver his entire life besides the 5 years he spent living in Fort Collins for schooling. He grew up playing football and basketball, where he learned his passion for helping someone to improve their abilities.

EDUCATION

Tyler attended Colorado State University where he chased a degree in sports medicine before he found his true love of massage therapy and attended Healing Arts Institute of Fort Collins.

WHY ARE YOU A MASSAGE THERAPIST?

His passion to help heal and improve the body has been driven by his love for sports. He is here to help others achieve their goals set in their respective activities.

AREAS OF SPECIAL INTEREST

Tyler's specialties include neuromuscular therapy, neuromuscular rehabilitation, and sports massage. He is also certified in reflexology and prenatal massage.

WHAT DO YOU LOVE TO DO IN YOUR FREE TIME?

In his off time, Tyler loves to spend his time camping, hiking, or fishing with friends. Depending on the season, he can be found at/watching sporting events including Broncos, Avalanche, and Rockies games. Tyler also loves hitting the gym or the heavy bag.
