

RAYN FOX

WELLNESS COORDINATOR

BACKGROUND

Rayn was born and raised in Aurora, Colorado. Rayn is long-time friends with long-time patient turned WPC employee, Naima Riola. Rayn has worked as an office assistant in two different departments at their college for the past two years.

EDUCATION

Rayn participated in a college credit program during high school and currently holds an Associates of Arts degree. Rayn currently attends Colorado College and is majoring in Creative Writing and minoring in Education. Rayn hopes to be an English teacher one day!

WHY ARE YOU APART OF THE FRONT DESK TEAM?

Rayn was introduced to the WPC community by old friend, Naima Riola, who is the current Chief of Staff at WPC. Though new to the world of chiropractic care, Rayn is excited to learn more and promote wellness!

AREAS OF SPECIAL INTEREST

Rayn has been writing since they were a kid. What were once stories of talking gingerbread men, Rayn's writing has evolved into a full fledged passion for poetry. They love poetry so much, they co-run a spoken word group at their college as well as an online literary magazine called NECTAR.

WHAT DO YOU LIKE TO DO IN YOUR SPARE TIME?

Eating food and reading about food are tied for Rayn's favorite pass times.
